ABOUT

Chase and the Barons is a group of loudly-dressed gentlemen aiming to entertain and amaze. Their energetic, quirky style and confident showmanship has fueled their success in the Pittsburgh area.

Their hefty repertoire of original songs began with a self-produced release recorded in frontman Chase Barron’s secluded cabin followed by a polished EP funded by college-label Pioneer Records.

The 4-piece has recently finished crafting their debut full-length album titled “Live Wire Bed Fire”. Capturing elements of pop-rock, punk, and even R&B, this well-rounded, 13-track rock album is scheduled for a release in early 2019.

The album’s lead single “Intoxicated” has been gaining traction on Pittsburgh’s #1 alternative rock station 105.9 The X. It has since been released digitally along with several other tracks performed live on the same station for an exclusive, in-studio performance.

Determined to end 2018 on a high note, Chase and the Barons are focusing their efforts on expanding their fanbase beyond PA and promoting their upcoming release to major hubs worldwide.
